
Antisemitism Today

Censorship, Conspiracy and the Dangers of Hate

an online talk by Ken Stern, director of the Bard Center for the Study of Hate

Thursday, April 14, 3:00 pm – 4:00 pm

Zoom webinar free to MTSU community:
<https://mtsu.zoom.us/j/88572822720?pwd=bG95L1pnL1RhUWNSUmZYL1Zaa1VTdz09>

Why is antisemitism one of the world's most persistent forms of hatred, one that exists on the political right and political left?

How does it manifest in society today?

Do we make a mistake when we think of antisemitism only as a matter of what people think or say about Jews?

What's the correlation between the strength of democratic principles – among them free speech – and our ability to combat antisemitism?